

Business coaching and people development, strategic thinking, business analysis and sustainability planning, to help you execute growth initiatives, set up new businesses, undergo mergers and acquisitions and reduce costs through streamlined operations.

Unlike anything you've done before...
One-on-one conversations to share ideas...
Gain more control over your business...
Break the barriers to growth and profits.

Today's top leaders – people like Bill Gates, Jack Canfield, and Tony Robbins – use Mastermind Groups to expand their success. Why? Because they know they will come away from the group with:

- New perspectives on tough business situations like expansion, hiring, new product offerings, and more
- Powerful business, sales and marketing strategies from local business owners
- Clarity on your direction
- Inefficiencies are reduced

Mastermind Group Session Guide:

November 6: Leadership as your most competitive advantage: It's up to you.

November 20: Competition and margins: Are you eating your competitor's dust? How do you know?

December 4: Strategies for results: What does this mean to you?

December 11: Alignment: Sales, marketing, people, and processes.

December 18: Structure and strategies to support your results.

PLUS: One one-on-one coaching session with Sue
